Job Description

The primary purpose of this position is to serve as the Resource Manager for the Force Support Flight, responsible for developing, implementing, and monitoring financial service operations and establishing internal accounting controls.

The duties will include the performance of a variety of financial management assignments related to the receipt, disbursement, accounting for, and safeguarding of funds in accordance with established principles, statutes, and policies. You will serve as a supervisor, performing first level supervisory personnel management responsibilities such as providing planning, direction, organization, and execution of control over nonsupervisory employees assigned to the Resource Management section. In addition, you will establish, define, and implement requirements for financial operations to ensure services and functions comply with legal and regulatory requirements and meet organizational goals and mission requirements. You will also be tasked with participating in special initiatives, studies, and projects, identifying and initiating the milestones and goals.

Qualifications and Key skills for the position.

A minimum of one year's specialized experience in the Key Skills and Abilities indicated below:

- Knowledge of commonly used budgetary methods, practices, procedures, regulations, policies, and processes to formulate, justify, and execute budgets and financial goals in support of the mission, structure, goals, work processes, and programs of the organization.
- Knowledge of the requirements, techniques, procedures, and practices of generally accepted accounting principles and standards.
- Knowledge of safety, security, personnel management, and EEO regulations, practices, and procedures.
- Knowledge of internal audit procedures to monitor financial services and establish internal controls.
- Knowledge of federal contracting and procurement regulations, procedures, and practices.
- Ability to plan, organize, and direct the operations and staff of a section.

Conditions of employment

- You will be required to handle and safeguard sensitive information in accordance with applicable US and UK laws, rules and regulations. This position may also be coded as mission essential.
- You may be required to travel by military and/or civilian aircraft, and you may also be required to travel to the US or other country, in the performance of official duties or attend necessary training.
- You will be required to complete a 6-month probationary period.
- Start & end times may be modified due to mission needs and in accordance with organization's flexible working policies. Emergency overtime is possible but not guaranteed and you may be assigned other duties not included in this position description, but that are appropriate to the grade and skill set.
- You must be able to communicate effectively both orally and in writing.
- You must obtain and maintain the required security clearance, certifications, and licenses for your job. You are also required to file a Confidential Financial Disclosure Report annually.
- You may be subject to drug testing if there is a reasonable suspicion of substance abuse or after a safety-related incident.

NOTE: You will require a security clearance and a right to work in the UK
